WAVEFRONT ENERGY & ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES INC.

POWERWAVE TO BE DEPLOYED IN WORKING
INTEREST AGREEMENT WITH ENERGEX OIL INC.

EDMONTON, Alta May 13, 2008/ Wavefront Energy and Environmental Services Inc. (“Wavefront”), a world leader in fluid injection technology for improved/enhanced oil recovery and groundwater restoration announces that it has entered into an agreement with Energex Oil Inc. (“Energex”), a privately held oil exploration and production company located in Colorado Springs, CO to acquire a fifty percent working interest in an oil field lease situated in Taylor County, Texas. Total consideration for the working interest will be $40,000 USD.

The lease, comprised of more than six tracts totaling 500 acres, is identified as the John McSherry Survey #129, Section 129, Taylor County, Texas that is to be unitized as the Dyess field. Energex will act as Operator of the Dyess field while Wavefront will be responsible for all development plans, well programs, and engineering and geological reports. Projected initial development costs are estimated at $2,700,000 USD; of which Wavefront will be responsible for its proportionate interest of $1,350,000 USD.

Wavefront President and CEO Brett Davidson commented, “The Dyess field represents a strategic prospect for Wavefront and we look forward to implementing a development plan that realizes the full potential of Powerwave to maximize production of the remaining recoverable reserves. Since the first agreement between the companies announced October 3, 2007, Energex and Wavefront have been seeking additional opportunities to acquire or co-develop assets with considerable recoverable reserves and where Powerwave can be a focal point in field development. As part of Wavefront’s overall corporate strategy the Company will continue to pursue favorable opportunities such as the Dyess field to showcase Powerwave and draw attention to the vast global potential the technology holds in maximizing recoverable oil reserves.”
